

SOROPTIMIST INTERNATIONAL OF MEDFORD

invites you to a very special day at the

TWENTIETH ANNUAL HOLIDAY HOME TOUR

Sunday, December 4, 2011

11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Minimum Donation - $15.00 per person

Tour FIVE outstanding homes all dressed up for Christmas and waiting for your admiration. See spectacular decorating, trees and stunning tables.

- * Built in 2003, this Arts and Crafts home in Jacksonville is Swiss influenced with Oriental accents. In Nunan Square, this home has pagoda-like upswept gable peaks and incredible decorating.
- * The pride of Candy Cane Lane, this stunning 3,400 square foot house is a dream. Holiday decorations abound in this single level, warm yet elegant home with a wonderful teapot collection in the Teapot Room.
- * This fantasy home is warm, cozy and totally charming with the children's bedrooms revealing storybook painted walls, and the Christmas cheer is reflected throughout.
- * An adorable two-story craftsman style townhome built in 2004 by Goings Homes, featuring 9' ceilings, crown moldings and lots of upgrades. It is artfully decorated and styled for the Holidays.
- * This updated 3,000 square foot home with soaring ceilings, massive fireplace and Santas everywhere is a must to visit. Built for entertaining, it features a beautiful gourmet kitchen and incredible craftsmanship throughout.

* DOOR PRIZES - REFRESHMENTS SERVED *
